

Case Studies

Fit Fur Life dog treadmills are the result of extensive and detailed consultation with Veterinary Surgeons and have been specifically designed to provide a finely controlled environment for:

1. Diagnosis of injuries and ailments
2. Faster post-operative rehabilitation
3. Improved post-operative end results

For empirical case studies demonstrating the benefits provided please click on the links below.

Recent articles

Case 27: Right elbow arthrotomy FCP	Sep 12, 2008	Case 26: Hemilaminectomy & disc fenestration	Sep 12, 2008
Case 25: Cruciate repair	Sep 12, 2008	Case 24: Reduced movement of elbow	Sep 12, 2008
Case 23: Obesity	Sep 12, 2008	Case 22: Cruciate repair	Aug 8, 2008
Case 21: Obesity	Aug 8, 2008	Case 20: Reduced elbow movement	Aug 8, 2008
Case 19: Right Cruciate repair	Aug 8, 2008	Case 18: Spiral fracture of tibial shaft	Aug 8, 2008
Case 17: Arthrotomy medial left elbow	Aug 8, 2008	Case 16: Spinal symptoms thoraco-lumbar vertebrae damage	Aug 8, 2008
Case 15: Pelvic limbs build up for showing	Aug 8, 2008	Case 12: Removal of Femoral Head	Aug 8, 2008
Case 11: Fibro-cartilagenous embolism	Aug 7, 2008

more articles >>